

FORM SUMMARY

Name of Form: Order to Show Cause and Affidavit for Temporary Order With Minor Children

Form Number: FA-4128V

Statutory Reference: §§767.117, 767.127, and 767.225, Wisconsin Statutes

Benchbook Reference:

Purpose of Form: This form allows a party in an action for divorce or legal separation in which there are minor children to request a hearing before the court to have an order entered that would resolve various issues such as asset allocation, debt payments, child custody and support, maintenance payments, and similar matters while the case is pending. It would be used when the parties are unable to reach an agreement on such issues.

Who Completes It: The party seeking the hearing would complete the caption and sign the affidavit section on page 3. After signing the affidavit, the signor would seek out a notary public, be sworn, and sign the affidavit under oath. The notary public would complete the notarial section. The party would then take the document to the court to have the court complete the date, time, place of the hearing and the name of the presiding court official.

Distribution of Form: Original will be filed with the court. Authenticated copy would be served on the other party.

Accompanying Forms: Although none are necessarily required, there may be schedules attached listing property, debts, or other information that doesn't fit on the form. Financial disclosure statements may also be attached as needed.

New Form/Modification: Modification; last update 10/06.

Modification: Added more descriptive instructions and lines after "other specific relief I believe appropriate as follows:" and further ordered statement regarding completion of FDS.

Comments: None
